- You can receive a free 24 oz. stainless steel water bottle or a free 2 gb camo flash drive for upgrading or starting a new life insurance policy with WINGA.
- Separated and retired Guardsmen can now apply for a new insurance policy. Previously, there was a 90 day window following separation or retirement when you could apply for insurance coverage for yourself, spouse and dependent children. This policy has been changed. Now a separated or retired guardsman who does not have our life insurance can apply for coverage up to age 60.
- Separated and retired Guardsman can now change your insurance coverage. Previously, there was a 90 day window following separation or retirement when you could modify your insurance policy coverage. This policy has been changed. Now a separated or retired guardsman can increase or decrease your coverage at any time until you reach age 60. Any increase in coverage requires review by our policy underwriters.
